Naan Bread Pizza for One

by Chantal Richards

My family absolutely love these. We have a stack of shop bought naan breads in the cupboard - and everyone just helps themselves for lunch. Quick and easy but very delicious.

Ingredients

1 shop-bought naan bread

2 teaspoons tomato pulp (chopped and sieved tomatoes from a jar - or other tomato sauce)

1 cup of grated cheese and/or mozzarella

Various toppings to your liking:
Mushrooms, cooked chicken, olives, peppers, tuna, spinach, chorizo, pepperoni, onions, cooked sausage, pineapple...

Method

Preheat the oven to 220°C/200°C Fan/gas mark 7/425°F. Lay the naan on a lined baking sheet.

Spread the tomato pulp or sauce over the naan.

Add chosen toppings and then cheese.

Cook in the oven for about 5-7 minutes, by which time the cheese should be bubbling and melted. Be careful not to burn your mouth. Enjoy!

POETRY CORNER

by Margaret Marshall

A Poem by Pam Ayres

I'm normally a social girl
I love to meet my mates
But lately with the virus here
We can't go out the gates.
You see, we are the 'oldies' now
We need to stay inside
If they haven't seen us for a while They'll think we've upped and died.
They'll never know the things we did
Before we got this old
There wasn't any Facebook
So not everything was told.
We may seem sweet old ladies
Who would never be uncouth
But we grew up in the 60s -
If you only knew the truth!
There was sex and drugs and rock 'n roll
The pill and miniskirts
We smoked, we drank, we partied
And were quite outrageous flirts.
Then we settled down, got married
And turned into someone's mum,
Somebody's wife, then nana,
Who on earth did we become?
We didn't mind the change of pace
Because our lives were full

But to bury us before we're dead
Is like a red rag to a bull!
So here you find me stuck inside
For 4 weeks, maybe more
I finally found myself again
Then I had to close the door!
It didn't really bother me
I'd while away the hour
I'd bake for all the family
But I've got no flaming flour!
Now Netflix is just wonderful
I like a gutsy thriller
I'm swooning over Idris
Or some random sexy killer.
At least I've got a stash of booze
For when I'm being idle
There's wine and whiskey, even gin
If I'm feeling suicidal!
So let's all drink to lockdown
To recovery and health
And hope this awful virus
Doesn't decimate our wealth.
We'll all get through the crisis
And be back to join our mates
Just hoping I'm not far too wide
To fit through the flaming gates.
